The KUH/NIDDK Predoctoral to Postdoctoral Fellow Transition Award (F99/K00)

This new award for the NIDDK aims to recruit and incentivize exceptional graduate students to pursue a kidney, urologic or hematologic postdoctoral position that ultimately positions them to become independent researchers. This two-phase award will facilitate completion of the doctoral dissertation and stabilize the transition of highly talented PhD candidates into strong postdoctoral appointments. It is anticipated that successful completion of this phased award will make the individual highly competitive for a subsequent NIDDK award (e.g., K99/R00, R01).

Application deadline: April 10, 2019.
